HOLDING ON TO THAT WORD GOD HAS GIVEN YOU, TODAY

By Dudley Anderson

“Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus” Philippians 1:6 (N.I.V)

God's Word, the Bible, is packed with promises of God for those who love and serve him through Jesus Christ. God has promised hope for eternal life, forgiveness of sin, healing for the sick, provision for the needy, joy for the grieving and peace for anxious. I also believe that the Lord has a unique promise for the plan and purpose of your life, today. His plans are always good and his plans never come undone. And here's the proverbial cherry on the top of the cream cake: all of God's promises are Yes and Amen through the Lord Jesus Christ!

As you read these words here today and look up the scriptures listed below know this, I believe the Lord has a specific word for you. I believe that God's purpose for you is definitely not over, yet. In fact, God's purposes for those who seek to track his will are never completed until the day they breathe their last breath on earth and go home to their Lord in glory. As you read these words here today, know that God's word to you is: he will fulfill your hearts longing if you continue to acknowledge him in all your ways and walk according to his word.

You may have been praying about a new opportunity or waiting for the Lord to prompt a decision that you are about to make; a decision that will change your life. God may have promised you a new venture that will end up bending you and manipulating you in ways you may never expect but know this, he will never leave you alone. His word is always true and his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

If that's for you today then I hear the Holy Spirit say, "I love it when a plan comes together;" and his plans are to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a new future.

Walk in his promises today and never look back!

Hold on to that word God has given you, today.

Pray:

"Dear Lord, your word instructs me to not treat prophecy with contempt but to test everything and only hold onto that which is good. So this word that I have read here today I test in Jesus' name. Help me to only hear and follow that which you have purposed for my life. And so, dear Lord, I ask for your blessing upon every decision I make today. I look for your hand and your guidance for my future as I continue to acknowledge you in all my ways. Today I commit myself to serve you and make the most of every opportunity you bring my way, with wisdom from your Spirit. Help me to have the faith to step out and grab a hold of this promise you have for me. And I pray for strength to endure any bending and re-shaping that I may need to endure in order to follow your new plans for my life. Jesus, I am yours! Amen."

"Faith and holiness are inextricably linked. Obeying the commands of God usually involves believing the promises of God." --- J. Bridges
