

1. Dry Bones can come to Life Again: I escaped the Life of a Street Boy : By Evangelist David Karanja.

One of my earliest wishes as a small boy was to know my father. I learnt when I was about four years old that the man living with my mother was not my biological father. Indeed, none of my mother's six children share a father with another one. When I asked one of my brothers of his whereabouts, I was told he had gone to Nairobi. I always wonder what course my life would have taken ad my father had acknowledged me and taken care of me....

Read more

2. JESUS RAISED ME OUT OF THE DARKNESS OF MENTAL ILLNESS.

By: Elizabeth Nabwani*

Problems in her polygamous marriage drove her to severe mental illness. Through the power of Christ, her forgiveness of herself and other people finally made her free.... Read more

- 3.

A MOTHER'S JOURNEY WITH AN AUTISTIC CHILD . By: Sarah Muthoni Gacheru

I hope that my story will give you an insight and that you will be thoughtful, kind and generous to all children with disabilities and to those who have the responsibility of taking care of them.... Read more

- 4.. Coping with Type I Diabetes – A mother's Story By Elizabeth Ndegwa

During the April 2009 school holidays, I noticed that my son Mark was not looking very healthy. I

Real Life Experiences

Written by admin

Wednesday, 29 June 2011 08:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2012 13:02

thought to myself that maybe he was not getting the right nutrients and even started planning how I could improve the children's diet.... Read More

5. Blind but not in the dark Nelius Wanjeri

In 1988, as a twelve year old girl and a pupil in Standard six at St Martin Complex Academy, Nelius Wanjeri was washing her hair in readiness for a wedding where she was a maid the following day. She bent to wash her hair fully sighted but by the time she had finished and lifted her head, she could not... Read More

6. A MOTHER'S EXPERIENCE WITH A DAUGHTER'S SUDDEN BLINDNESS

Nelius Wanjeri's mother on how her faith supported her. Read More

7. FAREWELL TO NELIUS WANJERI

Sometimes God sends his angels to inspire us but for a short time. Read more....

8 Mourning My Baby : The pain of Still Birth- by Alice K

These days, I am able to appreciate that everything works together for the good of all who love the Lord. I understand the deep surrender to God's will that such a testimony entails.... Read more

Real Life Experiences

Written by admin

Wednesday, 29 June 2011 08:33 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2012 13:02

9. I Saw the Hand of God- My Carjacking Eperience - by Wanjiru, P. K.

We need to always keep our hearts tuned to God, because we can go anytime.... Read more

10. I Did Not Think I Could Cope Alone!

By: Jane Muthoni Irungu.

She got married against her parent's wishes. He left her for someone else and she fell into depression. She has learnt to first wait on the Lord. Read more

11. The Troubles of My past life: Missing my Father

By Eunice Wangui.

My father abandoned us. I miss him still, but I am learning how to cope. Read more

A MOTHER'S JOURNEY WITH AN AUTISTIC CHILD.

By: Sarah Muthoni Gacheru

I hope that my story will give you an insight and that you will be thoughtful, kind and generous to all children with disabilities and to those who have the responsibility of taking care of them. Read more....