She was elected the Member of Parliament for Starehe constituency in Kenya's 2007 elections and was appointed to the Cabinet as Assistant Minister for Housing in 2008. She is a vocal participant in governmental policy and leadership issues.

Hon Bishop Margaret Wanjiru was born into a poor family of casual workers but her hard working mother was able to put her through both primary and high school. She paid her own way through college by working at humble jobs including that of a house girl, hawker, and office cleaner. On graduation from college she was employed in sales and rose to become a marketing executive but later left to start her own businesses.

Later on in life she gave her life to Jesus Christ and became a born again Christian. She started preaching in the streets of Nairobi but her Ministry grew in leaps and bounds and now they have their own sanctuary among many other properties and businesses. She was ordained by Bishop Arthur Kitonga in 1997.

The Mission of her ministry is, "to bring salvation, healing, deliverance, prosperity, redemption and righteousness to all the nations of the world". This is done through television, radio, crusades, conferences, books and tapes.

Hon Bishop Wanjiru has an honorary Doctorate in Divinity.
