WITHOUT A PROPER CONNECTION, AN ELECTRIC CIRCUIT IS NOT COMPLETE; NEITHER ARE WE!

by Tecla Khay

"The important element is the way in which all things are connected. Every thought and action sends shivers of energy into the world around us, which affects all creation. Perceiving the world as a web of connectedness helps us to overcome the feelings of separation that hold us back and cloud our vision. This connection with all life increases our sense of responsibility for every move, every attitude, allowing us to see clearly that each soul does indeed make a difference to the whole." □ Emma Restall Orr,

"I am the vine; you are the branches. If a man remains in me and I in him, he will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing" John 15:5 NIV

We are living in a world coupled with changes and advancements in technology. At the touch of the button you are able to communicate with people thousands of miles away through a simple phone call, short text messages, through faxes, through the use of a computer, and even a net top. We therefore say we are connected.

Connectedness - a very powerful word if applied well in all areas of our lives. It is because of connectedness that we talk of thriving businesses, marriages, functional families, and successful communication between different parties.

According to the Oxford Advanced Learner's dictionary to connect means to join two or more things together. For gadgets that use electric power for their energy, all the connections need to be made in such a way that there is a complete circuit. For a torch for example: the battery, bulb, wires and a switch all need to be connected properly for it to produce light.

Who then is a connected christian? Any person who is joined to God through Jesus Christ is connected. Christians can only be fully functional if they get that proper connection with Jesus Christ.

May God help us to develop that firm connectedness with Him. Amen
